Dear Nonprofit Executives:

Your commitment and accomplishments have caught our attention. We want to support your efforts and expand your reach by providing additional training and tools to take your organization to the next level!

The Annenberg Foundation has a tradition of investing in the visionary leadership of Los Angeles. To build upon this momentum, we are offering our expanded leadership development program — Annenberg Alchemy.

Alchemy is a free program that brings focus and strength to the Board Chair and Executive Director relationship.

What Alchemy offers:

-  Extensive seminars, workshops, mentoring and discussion groups.
-  Nationally respected practitioners and facilitators to address issues critical to nonprofit success
-  Cutting edge strategy sessions in fundraising and board governance
-  Ongoing guidance and follow up sessions
-  Connection to a growing network of nonprofit peers and experts through learning communities, and social media outlets

The first step to your participation is for you to apply to the Annenberg Alchemy Leadership Seminar - our signature course. The sole cost of admission is the attendance of both the Executive Director and Board Chair during the three days of activities together.

Applications are being accepted now through October 31, 2010.
